VOL. XXIII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 21, 1896.

NO. 92

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

—Rev. S. M. Logan returned Friday from Ford, where he held a protracted meeting. There was one addition.

—The Kalamazoo church, which Mr. Ingersoll said he would join, is the People's church, of which Miss Bartlett is pastor.

—Elder Robert Graham, of the Lexington Bible College, has been called to the pastorate of the Christian church at Glasgow.

—The American Bible society issued in December 113,676 volumes. Since April 1, 1895, the society has issued 728,920 volumes.

—The Rev. Dr. Atticus Green Haygood, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, died of paralysis Sunday at Oxford, Ga.

—Mr. Martin D. Hardin, of Hogsett Academy, has been engaged to conduct a series of religious services under the auspices of the Frankfort Y. M. C. A.

—The Rev. Warren Powers, a minister near Toombsboro, Ga., was called to his door at night and shot. A man named Dixon, a member of his congregation, has been arrested for the crime.

—The Glasgow Times copies the reference to Rev. W. A. Slaymaker and his church made in this paper, and adds that he was one of the most universally beloved men that ever resided in that county.

—The young people's society of the Baptist church will be addressed by Mr. Logan Hughes next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock on the subject, "Every Boy and Girl Should Have an Aim in Life." Everybody invited.

—There is a great deal more religion in paying an honest debt than there is in sitting in the amen corner of a church and hallooing "Amen." We have no confidence in sanctificationists or other professed christians, who make a great ado and then ignore their pecuniary obligations.

—Dr. Talmage won his point and now has things his own way at the First Presbyterian church Washington. The young co-pastor, the Rev. Adolus Allen, whose contract calls for one sermon each Sunday, has been asked to resign, since he refused to allow Dr. Talmage to monopolize the pulpit.

—Johnnie Eastland, of Danville, who has only missed attending school one Sunday in seven years and but two Sundays in nine years, is being mentioned by the papers all over the country and the patent outside are spreading his name far and wide. He is a nephew of Mr. A. G. Eastland, of this place.

LAW MAKING AT FRANKFORT.

—It is now conceded that the votes of the two populists will go for Blackburn.

—Senator Walton has presented a bill to relieve the circuit courts of the State of the trial of misdemeanor cases.

—Kentucky's Women's Suffrage Association is making a fight to have female physicians placed in the lunatic asylums.

—Representative Burnam, of Madison, is said to be grooming for the republican nomination for Congressman in this district.

—A bill to punish pistol toting by from six months to two years in the penitentiary has been introduced in the House.

—The committee on public morals has reported a bill to raise the age of consent from 12 to 18 years, with recommendation that it be passed.

—One of Hunter's friends predicts that he will be elected Wednesday—that only a majority of those voting with a quorum present is necessary.

—A bill to abolish the office of Commonwealth's attorney and providing that county attorneys shall discharge the duty has been presented.

—A bill will be introduced in the House this week to empower Treasurer Long to issue $500,000 in interest bearing bonds to meet the indebtedness of the State.

—Senator Ogilvie is expected to arrive at Frankfort today, or at least in time for the joint ballot Wednesday. It is denied that any request was made of Senator Ogilvie to resign.

—There are two Senator Lays in the present Legislature—J. S. and J. C. The first is a democrat, the other is republican. One hails from Morgan, the other is a Casey county exotic.

—Instead of a deficit of several hundred thousand dollars, State Treasurer Long quotes figures to show the State will soon owe about $2,500,000, which it will not be able to meet until next fall.

—The Senate will not confirm the nomination of J. W. Postell, colored, to be steward of the Western Insane Asylum at Hopkinsville. It is said that Gov. Bradley did not know Postell was a saloon-keeper when he made the appointment.

—Legislators seem to be somewhat mixed as to the status of the first of January. In the Senate a member introduced a bill to make it a legal holiday and in the House another presented one to repeal the act making it such. There is no good reason for making it a holiday and very many why it should not be made.

LANCASTER, CARRARD COUNTY.

—Rev. T. H. Campbell preached at the Baptist church in Hustonville on Sunday morning and evening.

—The union services were conducted Sunday evening by Rev. J. M. Nelson at the Christian church.

—The Baptist society met with Miss Julia Reid on last Friday evening at her home on Richmond street.

—The Mason Hotel is being adorned by a fresh coat of paint. As it is used as a house of transient custom it will present a more pleasing appearance than formerly.

—Mr. James Clark, of Boyle, has rented and last week moved to the farm of Mr. Henry Clay Jennings a few miles of Lancaster on the Sugar Creek pike, paying $900 rent for it.

—Our sick folk are Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, Mrs. R. H. Batson, Mrs. Jessie Fox, Mrs. Nannie Carpenter, Miss Fannie Shugars, Little Lizzie Bettis, Mrs. Susan Fisher, Mrs. H. C. Herring and Miss Julia Reid.

—A number of Lancaster people have tried their art in guessing the correct solution of the story "Her Three Suitors." It is earnestly hoped that some Lancaster may be winners of at least a portion of the $500.

—Died Sunday in this county of cancer of the stomach at his home on the Fall Lick pike, Mr. John Lawson in his 76th year. He had been in failing health for some time, but was able to go about until a few weeks past, when death claimed him as his victim.

—There is a gentleman of our community of classical acquirements that has completed and will have published a book, a sequel to "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It has been illustrated by a talented young artist of this vicinity. Lancaster keeps to the forefront not only in a political, but in a literary and artistic way as well.

—Price Bros sold 12 yearling mules to T. C. Hubble at $50. James A. McCarty bought of Sam Anderson a bunch of cattle for $70. Robert Elkin bought nine yearling mules from Charles Spoonamore. A. R. Denny bought eight feeding cattle of Lincoln county parties at $3.60. Mr. Jesse Doty sold to W. A. Hiatt four hogs at 3.15. James Elmore bought two work mules from Richmond parties for $190.

—Miss Jennie Shumate, of Danville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Higginbotham. Misses Mattie and Nannie McCarty have returned from a pleasant visit of a month to the family of Mr. John Smith, of Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Greenleaf have returned to St. Louis. Miss Annie Royston is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. George H. Bruce, in Danville. Mr. R. S. Bryant and wife, of Paris, have moved here and are occupying the Singleton property. Miss Hannah Tracey, of Danville, is a visitor of Misses Maggie and Katie Dooley. Mrs. J. W. Rowland returned to her home at Point Burnside Monday.

—Husband, father and grand-father, neighbor, friend—all in one—is gone and another fireside is left vacant, one more home is made desolate by that dark browed visitor, death. Last Friday at his home near Kirksville, surrounded by his loved ones, Mr. Woodson Ballew departed this life at the advanced age of 77 years. After a struggle with a fatal disease, "the golden bowl was broken, and the spirit fled forever." His funeral was preached at the house Sunday morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. W. A. Potter, after which the remains were brought here and tenderly laid away, there to await the resurrection morn.

—Friend after friend departs; Who has not lost a friend? There is no union here of hearts That knows not here an end.

—Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones. A widow and two daughters, Mrs. Joe Burnside and Mrs. Chas. Ballew are left to mourn the death of a devoted husband and father.

—ELLIOTT.—A Mayfield paper says that 230 pupils are enrolled at West Kentucky College with flattering prospects of an increase of at least 50 inside of three weeks. This shows excellency and competency on the part of the school's management and it will never be otherwise so long as a principal of the quality of Prof. Elliott is in charge. This institution is second to none, and we predict for it an immense patronage in the future.

—Illinois democratic leaders, according to a statement made in Washington, have decided to unite on Morrison for president and to nominate Vice President Stevenson for United States Senator in the State convention this year.

—Despite the pressure being brought to bear, Senator Jones refuses to allow the Dingley tariff bill to be reported without a sugar amendment.

—It is reported that Spain is about to cede Cuba to England and that the U. S. has ordered troops in Florida to be held in readiness to resist it.

—An informal meeting of Missouri democrats at Washington decided that Morrison shall have the vote of the State for president.

—Russia has set aside $234,000 for the purchase of horses.

ON A LOCAL NATURE.

—Mr. Mac Thurman has taken charge of the Warbott Hotel at Lawrenceburg.

—The stock in the National Bank of Lancaster has been reduced from $250,000 to $200,000.

—A post office has been established at Combs, Madison county, with George W. Rogers, postmaster.

—J. Mat Parker, a promising young man of Williamsburg, died after a lingering siege of consumption.

—Since George W. Bain's lecture there, Harrodsburg prohibitionists are agitating the question of a local option election.

—John C. Colson, of Bell, has withdrawn from the contest for warden of the penitentiary. Hazlip, of Barren, has a call on the job.

—Willie, the 14-year old son of W. H. Cundiff, of Pulaski, killed his younger brother Elmer, with an old gun he didn't know was loaded.

—Another dividend of 10 per cent, making 20 in all, has just been paid depositors in the Pineville Banking Co., which assigned in July 1893.

—The three Strunk boys were tried before Commissioner W. C. Curd at Somerset for shooting Deputy U. S. Marshal Bates and held over to the U. S. court in $2,500 each.

—George B. Dean, a Mercer county farmer, hung himself with a bridal rein because of worry over a suit against him for $220. His wife found him and cut him down but life was extinct.

—The stingiest man has been found in the delectable town of Danville. He is described as being too stingy to spit. There are more stingy old cusses in that moss laden town than anywhere else on earth.—Jackson Hustler.

—Col. J. H. Brooks, a brother of J. J. Brooks, United States storekeeper and gauger under Collector Rodes, and also of W. T. Brooks, a prominent druggist of Paris, is under arrest at Richmond for grand larceny committed in Ohio.

—The court of appeals reversed the life sentence of Jesse Fields and Jo Adkins, of Perry county, who were sentenced for the murder of County Judge Combs, on the ground that the lower court did not award proper process for witnesses.

—Eljah Myers and John Dills were convicted in the circuit court at Williamsburg and each was given three years in the penitentiary. Myers of stealing hides from a tannery near Jellico and Dills for attempting to outrage Nannie Rose, at a coal mine, near Kenesee.

—At the assignee's sale of the stock of goods of J. M. Conant, at Middlesboro, his wife who was the principal creditor became the purchaser at $1,700, although the goods were appraised at $3,000 and invoiced $4,300. Mrs. Conant is a daughter of Mrs. W. T. Green, formerly of Stanford.

—The 40-pound paraffine candle which was used as an advertisement by A. M. Kinnaird & Co., at Middlesboro, which was lighted Dec. 24 burned 421 hours, 22 minutes and 30 seconds. A lady guessed within a few seconds of the time and got a $20 prize. The second prize of $5 was won by a man.

—Wash Richardson, the Pulaski county farmer who had a presentiment that he would die Jan. 15th and bought a coffin to be buried in, is still alive and well, says the Somerset Reporter. The old gentleman claims that he prayed for an extension of life and has been given five years longer to live.

—Drum, the famous old bloodhound owned by J. R. Neighbors, was killed by a train Tuesday. This dog has tracked some of the most famous criminals in the State, namely the negro who ruined and murdered two girls in Western Kentucky and William Taylor, colored, the murderer of Magistrate David Doty, a prominent citizen of Madison county last year.—Elizabethtown News.

DANVILLE.—The meeting which Rev. Henry Faulconer has been conducting at White Oak closed last night, after two weeks of good work. There were 32 accessions to the congregation.—Mr. W. G. Raney and family have moved to the Roberts cottage, on East Main street, just vacated by Mrs. Proctor and Mrs. Duncan. Mrs. Raney is slowly recovering from a protracted illness.—Miss Bettie Higgins, of Crab Orchard, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Farris.—Hattie Maynard, the missing daughter of Louis Maynard, of Danville, was found at the home of William Burns, near Willisburg.—Advocate.

LIBERTY.—Mrs. John Brown died of consumption on the 14th and was interred at Mansville. On the 15th, Mr. Mark Cowden died of consumption. W. F. Cabbell and wife, of Lebanon, and Miss Dollie Cabbell, of Hustonville, were visiting relatives here last week. Misses Julia A. Stagg and Annie Belden are visiting relatives and friends at Hustonville. Miss Stagg is to begin a school at Hustonville, Monday, the 20th.

—A girl baby born the other day in Kokomo, Ind., is the 14th daughter of a 14th daughter of a 14th daughter—a record which is thought to be unprecedented.

CRAB ORCHARD.

—Mrs. L. A. Pettus presented her husband with a boy Friday.

—The Keeley Cure has only about eight patients now, but a large number is expected Feb. 1.

—J. E. Carson sold to Richard Gentry, of Boyle, a fine pair of mare mules for $250. Dr. J. S. Stapp bought a milk cow the other day and paid the fancy price of $75 for her.

—Crab Orchard has two candy factories. John Shaw Edmiston runs one and Curtis Egbert the other. Both of them make all of the candy they sell and are really experts in the business.

—Mrs. Alice Newland tells us that the L. & N. will build a flower garden and park on the grounds to the left of the depot. Operations will begin at once and money will not be spared in making it a thing of beauty.

—Lou A. Pettus has opened a general merchandise and drug store in the room recently vacated by W. A. Beazley & Son. The latter firm has the neatest drug store in the country in J. T. Chadwick's old store-room.

—Mr. Hugh Seargent, the tobacco manufacturer, has a commodious factory near the depot and is doing a good business. His brands in both chewing and smoking tobacco are good sellers and his greatest trouble is in filling his orders.

—Dr. Stapp's school at College Home has 30-odd pupils and is progressing nicely. The doctor, who has the reputation of being the politest man in the world, is a splendid educator and he has an excellent assistant in his estimable wife.

—A great deal of lumber is being shipped from this point now. Twelve wagons were being unloaded when your correspondent was at the depot Saturday, and he was told that this was of frequent occurrence. Cross ties and spokes make up the greater part of the lumber shipped.

—J. W. James, the distiller, has recently completed a warehouse with capacity to hold 2,000 barrels of whisky. He has 1,335 barrels on hand now and is making 4½ to five barrels daily. To withdraw what "red eye" Mr. James already has on hand would cost him about $70,000. It takes money to run a big distillery.

—Frank Chandler, who lives not far from town, is nearly 50 years old, has lived in Lincoln most all of his life and has never been to Stanford but twice. One of these times he came for his marriage license and the other to bring a wild cat skin and receive the reward given in those days for killing wild cats. Mr. Chandler is a well-to-do farmer and has the appearance of a man who has been about more than a couple of trips to the county seat. E. C. W.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Miss Sallie P. Thorpe and Mr. R. C. Cobb were married in Madison last week.

—R. A. Wade, 75, and Mrs. Mary Agnew, 72, inmates of the Bourbon county poor-house, were married the other day.

—Mr. R. N. Beazley, a tobacco dealer, and Miss Sallie Campbell, of Paint Lick, were married Thursday night by the Rev. A. W. Crawford.

—The feminine element is terribly in excess in Germany, the women exceeding the men by more than 1,000,000, according to the latest statistics.

—Mr. Waller Bennett and Miss Mary Burnam, daughter of Hon. O. F. Burnam, will be married at Richmond on the 22nd. The will go to Europe on their bridal trip.

—Dr. Andrew Seargent, of Hopkinsville, late of this county, has brought suit against his wife for divorce on the grounds of abandonment. She left him in April, 1894, and has since refused to live with him.

—The marriage of Miss Lula Arnold to Mr. J. S. Johnson, of Bryansville, which the Stanford INTERIOR JOURNAL published a couple of weeks before it happened, was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Nannie J. Arnold, this city, Wednesday night at 11:30.—Richmond Register.

—Ex-President Harrison has finally confirmed the reports that he and Mrs. Dimmick are to be married. The wedding will not take place until after Lent. During the life of Mrs. Harrison, who was her aunt, Mrs. Dimmick practically governed Mr. Harrison's household in Indianapolis and directed the household affairs of the White House during the period that Mrs. Harrison was ill. At all State functions she received with Mrs. Harrison, when alive, and acted in her place later when she was sick. She is a strikingly handsome blonde of 40.

—An exchange says that a cure cure for inflammatory rheumatism is made by taking one ounce of pulverized saltpeter and putting it into a pint of sweet oil. Bathe the parts affected and a sound cure will be speedily made.

—Four billions three hundred and eighty thousand postage stamps are used in a year by the people of the United States.

—Bernard Gillam, the noted cartoonist of Judge, died of typhoid fever Sunday.

W. P. WALTON.

It was the policy of the republicans in the House to wait till just before the balloting hour for U. S. Senator and then force a vote in the Pence, Kaufman and Tompkins cases, which would oust them, but the democrats of the Senate got wind of it and adopted an amendment to the rules making it possible on the short-notice to turn out the republican Senators who have been marked for decapitation by providing that the report of the Senate democratic "investigating" committee shall take precedence of everything else, that no debate shall be permitted and that in the event the lieutenant governor declines to put the question to a vote it shall be put by the clerk, who is a democrat. The five republicans marked for decapitation are James, Jones, Dingus, Walton and Lay. These gentlemen do not seem exercised over the situation, and say that even should the Senate resort to such methods and turn them out, they will nevertheless be on hand at the joint ballot, and insist upon casting their vote for Hunter. In the House Mr. Carroll has a certificate from the postmaster general that Ratcliffe, of Pike, was not only a postmaster when he was elected, but still holds that office and as the offices are incompatible he will have to go.

When the republicans saw that the democrats were in earnest and ready to meet them much more than half way in the matter of ousting members, they came to their senses and the more conservative asked for a suspension of hostilities. The services of the great pacificator, John W. Yerkes, was called into action and he succeeded in convincing Dr. Hunter that things had gone far enough and that worthy finally consented that no Senator shall be elected and no democratic member unelected till after the new member from Nelson arrives. The law requires that balloting for U. S. Senator shall begin today and the letter of the law will be complied with, while the spirit is disregarded by making an election impossible. It was a big game of bluff, but the democrats of the Senate had the nerve to call it and at the same time show that they were ready for any and every contingency. There is a bare chance of electing a democrat, but not Blackburn, since Weissinger, Carroll and Violet say they will never vote for him. With the populists he has 67 votes to Hunter 68, so it will be seen that with the one lacking three and the other two votes of a majority, a dead-lock must ensue unless an unobjectionable democrat or a more decent republican be united upon.

PLANTZ, the man whom the democrats elected for sheriff of Jefferson county, ought to be confined in the asylum for the feeble minded. With the law plainly laid down that a sheriff must execute bond on or before the 1st Monday in January, he failed to do so and Auditor Stone refused to accept it after the date named. This throws out another democrat and puts a republican in, the judge of Jefferson county being a republican and having appointed Charles Schuff, a republican, to fill the vacancy till the next November election. The office is the best of the kind in the State and is another fat plum for the lucky republicans. If Mr. Plantz will go out and hang himself now, all will be forgiven, otherwise the condemnation he has brought upon his head, will remain in full force and effect.

SPEAKER REED has intimated that no more States shall be admitted into the Union at present, which will necessarily add to the strength of the free silver men in the Senate, who now seem to have a majority there. Utah will join the silverites and with Nevada, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, North and South Dakota, all with a little over as much population as Indiana, add 14 votes for the crazy. Such inequality of representation is what makes the passage of so hurtful a law possible.

THE negro appointed by Gov. Bradley to be steward of the Hopkinsville Lunatic Asylum is a saloon keeper and the people of that city are so indignant over the appointment, which they regard as a disgrace to the State, that a meeting to condemn the governor's action will likely be held. If Gov. Bradley is to put negroes in office, he should at least, select respectable ones.

DEMOCRACY seems to be playing against fate, folly, death, hell and the devil, but it is equal to the whole batch and will eventually come out right side up with care. A few more moves of such fools as Plantz, however, will shut it out entirely for the time being from Jefferson county and Louisville.

THE National democratic convention is to be held at Chicago, July 7. The win-city started in with six votes and came out with 26, beating St. Louis 2. Cincinnati and New York were nominated and got 19 and 14 respectively on the first ballot. Kentucky's vote was cast on the last ballot for Chicago.

THE United States pays $900,000 a year for its weather and generally gets a mighty poor article at that.

THE formal announcement of the candidacy of John Sam Owsley, Jr., for Congress appears in this issue. He is so far the only regularly announced candidate and the list of probable entries grows less as his strong lead is contemplated. For awhile the woods seemed full of candidates, but they have dwindled down till only Force, of Shelby, and Stephenson, of Mercer, are mentioned in connection with the race and neither of them has formally declared his intention to run. In referring to Mr. Owsley's candidacy the Richmond Register says: Though born and reared in Lincoln, Mr. Owsley may almost be considered a Madison county product, his mother being a daughter of Thomas Woods Miller, a former native and citizen of the Muddy Creek locality, and through whom he is closely related to many of the most prominent families in this and Garrard counties, among them the Millers, Irvines and Owsleys. Mr. Owsley is a graduate of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., where Gov. McCreary also received his legal diploma; and whether due to Mr. Owsley's influence or not, it may be remarked in this connection that Lincoln, his home county, has never gone back on the Madison county statesman, which on the principal of reciprocity, should be an additional reason for Madison supporting him in his candidacy. In his canvass Mr. Owsley has so far visited Mercer, Boyle and Garrard and everywhere has met with that encouragement which his ability and popularity merit. In the event of a convention let Madison remember her kinsman and instruct her delegate to vote for Owsley.

FINDING that it would require two weeks or more to make the trip and being unable to spare that much time, we reluctantly gave up the trip to St. Augustine, Fla., where the National Editorial Association meets to-day, and to which we were appointed a delegate from Kentucky. In addition to the pleasure of meeting in the historic old town in the land of flowers and enjoying an exchange of views on the best management of newspapers, the editors will be taken on a tour of the State, besides given a cruise down the Atlantic Coast and up the Gulf of Mexico. It is a big thing to miss, but such is life. In this connection we wish to extend our thanks to President M. H. Smith, of the L. & N., and Mr. W. C. Rinearsen, general passenger agent of the Queen & Crescent, for passes thither for self and wife, which we appreciate just as much as if we had used them.

THE House passed the pension bill, which appropriates $141,223,829, after a great deal of mock heroism and silly gabble about the defenders of the country. When it is considered that the greater part of that vast sum goes to men who skulked in the rear in war and are worse than worthless drones in peace, those who have to foot the bill get entirely out of patience with the time servers, who for a vote or two would loot the public treasury. The advocates of the "vested right" nonsense were prevented from tacking it to the bill, but will bring in a separate one and urge its passage, although the courts have decided that a pension is not such a right, but purely a matter of Congressional discretion.

HON. J. A. VIOLETT, of Franklin county, says he will in no event vote for Blackburn, and when one considers how he has been treated by the Senator, it is not to be wondered at. Blackburn has opposed him every time he has offered for office and when he ran for the Legislature, put up a man against him and used methods not entirely legitimate to beat him, besides belittling him in his speeches and otherwise. It was a square fight for or against Blackburn in his county, and his constituents having decided against the Senator, Mr. Violet seems honor bound to respect their wishes.

A RED HOT resolution reaffirming the Monroe doctrine has been presented in the Senate and will be adopted. It declares that in case boundary disputes on the American continent between foreign governments and American governments are decided by arbitration, agreement or purchase, or in any manner, whatever the United States shall be the sole judge as to whether the Monroe doctrine has been violated in such arbitration or agreement.

THE institution of a lithographic supplement for the art by the Courier-Journal is a decided improvement and is highly appreciated by its readers, who prefer pictures of real things which they know or have heard of to the impossible ones, born in some cases of a disordered imagination.

James Gordon Bennett's trotters won $2,709 in Europe last year.

A movement is on foot at Cincinnati to boom M. E. Ingalls, the railroad magnet, as a democratic presidential candidate.

The Frankfort Argus says that Col. Ed O. Leigh is the only relic of good democracy now in office on Capitol square.

Crittenden county is now under local option rule. Prohibition was voted several months ago, and the last saloon license has just expired.

The taxable wealth of Woodford county is over $8,000,000. There are over 200 who are taxed on upwards of $10,000, while A. J. Alexander gives in a tax list of nearly $1,000,000.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

THE 250-lb plate glass, to take the place of the broken one, was put in for Severance & Son yesterday.

THE weather has been remarkably pleasant for a week. Rain was predicted for last night and fair and colder for to-day.

Mrs. VIRGINIA KING's residence on Broad street in Danville was sold yesterday by Commissioner R. C. Warren to J. A. Cheek for $5,580.

BEN WEAREN caught 30 large rats in traps set in Higgins & McKinney's store Sunday night and yesterday the boys had a big time seeing the dogs dispatch them.

THEIR friends here will be glad to know that Mad. Cecilia Eppinghausen Bailey and Miss Dollie Williams will give a musical entertainment in Danville, Jan. 31.

LINCOLN county people are invited to dine at the Mason House when they go to Lancaster next Monday. Mrs. Simpson will give you a first-class dinner and treat you right.

MR. S. W. MENEFEE, of the D. and D. Institute of Danville, will give a phonographic concert at the Christian church, Turnersville, for the benefit of the Christian Endeavor, on Saturday evening, January 25, at 7 o'clock. Admission 10 and 15 cts. The public is cordially invited.

JUNK.—H. F. Horton is doing a big business in shipping old iron and bones to New Albany. He has sent five car loads for which he paid 12½¢ per cwt. for iron and 20¢ for bones. As he takes all kinds of iron and most any kind of bones, a number of people make good wages gathering them.

"BEHOLD the Son of God." These words were uttered by a singular looking man, who entered this office yesterday unannounced. Thinking that he had got into the wrong place or that he was mistaken in his assertion, we asked him to sit down and tell us about it. He refused to do so, but continued to aver that he was the Son of God, that the millennium began last May, that the church of God was organized June 2d and that the man who says he is not evidence is a liar and the truth is not in him. He also exhibited a stone, which he said was the one with which David killed Goliath. Investigation proved that the man was Wm. Spratt, who several years ago lost his mind over religion and was sent to the asylum.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Mr. T. W. Ballew, a prominent citizen of Garrard, died Friday of diabetes, aged 77. He married a sister of Mr. W. M. Lackey and was the father of Mrs. Joe Burnside, who with his wife and a single daughter survive him. He attended the dinner given by Mr. Lackey in celebration of his 80th birth day and seemed in reasonable health then.

—Col. James M. Beazley, aged 68, died Sunday of heart trouble, after a few weeks' illness. He was born in Garrard county and married Miss Sallie Grimes, who bore him nine children, seven of whom are living. They moved to this county a number of years ago and have since made it their home, with the exception of a year or two at Junction City, where Mr. Beazley engaged in the hotel business. He was a member of the Christian church for years and was a kind hearted, honest and true man. His neighbors held him in highest esteem and his death will occasion general regret. After a short service at his home yesterday by Rev. J. T. Sharrard, the remains were taken to Lancaster and laid by the loved ones whom had gone before.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Rus Bailey, of Woodford, sold ex-Gov. R. M. Merriam, of Minnesota, a handsome span of road mares for $2,500. They are well-bred, blood bays, perfectly mated, and can trot in 2:40.

—J. M. and Samuel Forsythe sold this week to Richard Gentry, of Boyle, 50 1-500 lb. cattle at $3.35.—Harrodsburg Democrat. The same paper reports sales of several cars of hogs at 3.10 and lambs at 2½.

—John B. Embry, who bought Hon. J. S. Owsley, Sr.'s, cattle, tells us that the average of the 117 head was 1,573. They were shipped Saturday via the K. C. direct to Boston to go to England. Four of these cattle weighed 1,900 a piece.

—A good crowd attended the Danville court yesterday, but business was not brisk. Of the 100 or more cattle on the market about 50 changed hands. A bunch of yearlings brought $15.15, a lot of 900 pound cattle sold at 3c and a little better grade brought 3½c. Mules brought $75 to $95, with no great demand. Plug horses were dull at $10 to $30.

—J. W. Bales shipped 151 export cattle bought of Arnold, Black and others, averaging 1,550 lbs., which he bought at 3½ to 4½. Bales also bought two car loads of hogs at 3 to 3 15 and a car of butcher cattle at 2½ to 3½. Silas T. Cobb's farm of 131 acres was bought by Miss Nannie Ballard at $45.10 and his 44 acre tract by M. C. Covington at $55.—Richmond Register.

Little Miss Margaret Woods James is quite sick with pneumonia.

Claire Campbell, of Lexington, was over on a visit to his friends here.

Mrs. Wix Dillon, of Livingston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jesse Rout.

Rev. R. B. Mahony has been confined to his bed with the grip for several days.

Mrs. Mary F. Bradley, of Hustonville, spent several days with Mrs. W. P. Tate.

Mr. J. W. Perrin went up to Middleboro yesterday. His family is visiting in Gaffard.

Mrs. S. P. Stagg has returned from a visit to Meadames J. T. and O. T. Bohon in Carey.

Mr. J. Z. Carson, of Lancaster, was over here yesterday advertising the Mason Hotel.

The Elizabethtown News contains a good picture of Banker and Councilman J. S. Grimes.

Miss Bettie Paxton, who has been visiting in Louisville for several months, returned Saturday.

Mrs. Martha Simpson, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. E. T. Pence, went to Louisville Saturday.

J. H. Collier, the clever merchant and hustling saw mill man, was down from Crab Orchard yesterday.

Mrs. John W. Rout went to attend the bedside of her uncle, Woodson Ballew, and was present at his death.

Mr. H. C. Thompson, of London, was on yesterday's train en route to Louisville and threw off a couple of dollars to the I. J.

Hon. M. F. North, an old Bell county boy, and one of whom she is proud, is here to attend our court.—Pineville Courier.

Mrs. D. B. Edmiston and Mrs. Joe McClure, of Crab Orchard, were here yesterday. Mrs. E. has greatly improved in health.

Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Sharrard will accompany Mrs. W. K. Griffith as far as Paris today and spend a few days with relatives there.

My friends will greatly oblige me if they will call and settle their accounts. I need the money. M. F. Elkin.

There is now not an empty store-room in town, whereas a month ago there were three. Times must be looking up.

Capt. B. N. Roller tells us that the L. & N. will hereafter haul loaded stock cars on the front end of the train to avoid rough jars.

Hugh Jacobs, yesterday, plead guilty to carrying concealed weapons and was given 10 days and fined $25 by Judge Davison.

Circuit court began at Danville yesterday, but as the principal murder case has been removed to this county, the criminal docket is short.

Mr. J. R. Hales tells us that he saw a buzzard with a bell around its neck Friday. The ringing attracted his attention and he could see the bell plainly.

Mr. J. R. Hales is sole agent for the Manchester Peacock coal as will be seen by certificate published elsewhere and he says it is the best coal on the market.

Wanted.—Everybody owing me to come and settle within the month of January. After that time my collector will call on you. Dr. J. G. Carpenter.

The L. & N. continues to make improvements at the depot. The latest is the sodding of the embankment, as well as all around the crushed stone walk along the track.

I have placed my accounts in the hands of Jesse D. Wearen for collection and will expect all who owe me to settle in the next 30 days. I am determined to straighten up my business. Dr. J. F. Peyton.

Messrs. A. B. Robertson & Bro., the Danville merchants, are enlivening January trade by offering $2,000 worth of table linens, napkins and towels at special sale. See prices elsewhere in this paper and take advantage of them.

Cantata.—Local talent, under the direction of Miss N. C. B. McEwen, of Danville, will render the cantata, "Ethereal the Beautiful Queen," at the colored Baptist church, Jan. 30. Admission 15c or 25c for a couple.

There are 35 prisoners in the jail at Bowling Green and court is in session, with an unusually large civil docket besides. Mr. Thomas Miller Owsley went at the right time and is, we hear, already in the thickest of the fight.

The Stanford Courier has made its appearance and it is a daisy. It is published by the drug firm of Craig & Hocker. Dr. Craig writes the medical articles and Dr. Warren Hocker the poetry and together they make a team hard to beat.

The Old Mason Hotel at Lancaster has been newly repaired and refurnished and I am prepared to accommodate the public and want the Lincoln county people to remember me. Mrs. U. D. Simpson, proprietress.

The Central Kentucky Medical Society meeting at Danville, elected as president, James B. Kinnaird, Lancaster; vice president, G. E. Davis, Salvisa; treasurer, W. D. Powell, Harrodsburg; secretary, Steele Bailey, Stanford. The next meeting will be in Stanford in April.

We have just opened a brand new stock of Staple and Fancy Groceries, Tin, Glass, Wooden and Queensware at H. J. McRoberts' old stand, opposite the court-house, and invite our friends to give us a call. First-class goods and fair dealing shall be our motto. Warren & Shanks.

That Stanford is not dead by a long shot, the receipts from freights show very decidedly. Agent J. S. Rice says that in 1892, when everything was on a boom, he received from $2,500 to $2,800 per month for freight charges, now they run from $2,800 to $3,500. There is life in the old town yet.

Notice of G. A. R. Meeting.—All ex-Union soldiers who feel an interest in the G. A. R. are requested to meet at the court-house in Stanford Saturday, 25th inst., at 1 o'clock p. m., at which time it is proposed to organize a Post of the Grand Army Republic. George H. McKinney, Com'tee.

Gen. Lee.—That sterling old Confederate, Thomas Jefferson Hatcher, is agent for the Life of Gen. Robert E. Lee by his nephew, Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, the price of which is $1 and well worth it. By taking the Confederate Veteran with it, however, the price of which is $1 a year, he will let you have both for $2. The Life of Lee is intensely interesting and absolutely correct, and is a valuable contribution to the history of the Lost Cause.
